SENIORS
To Our Seniors:

You young people, who are now graduating from high school, can do one or two things in regard to the great social and political upheaval now taking place. You can be ostrich-like and not look at realities; go your way and disregard your own obligations to our democracy; get as much for yourselves as you can; climb by stepping on others.

Or, you can study carefully the meaning of American citizenship, its rights and privileges, and its obligations; you can determine with a finality and a firmness that come what may you will serve, through your job, through your talk with others, through your active life wherever you are, the high aims of that citizenship.

I have great faith that you are to take the second position and that your studenthood here at North Central has helped you to live up to that ideal.

Most sincerely yours,

F. G. KENNEDY.

April 24, 1941.

W E, THE senior class, having undergone a thorough examination and being found sound of mind and body do hereby in all sincerity and earnestness under oath bequeath our treasures and fortunes that we have accumulated during the past four years to our successors in the hopes that they will derive from them the same pleasures and profit we have; to-wit:

With a deep bow to the artistic coaching of Mrs. Leonard, Jack Guthrie wishes to bequeath to North Central his perfect portrayal of poor white trash in "Tobacco Alley."

Virginia Lee Ball credited by all and sundry as a "model" girl leaves Gayle Nelson the honor of carrying the torch for that title.

Hear ye! Hear ye! Rolly Pacello publicly announces that his poor-broken-in-football nose is willingly presented to the next football playing Contos, who happens to be Gus.

To any lad desiring a girl friend, Warren Brusseau will give his success formula entitled "How to Win Girls and Influence Mothers."

We reluctantly part with Betty Boyer's quiet way and will it to all those silent freshmen.

We are happy to present to that red-haired Joanne Thompson, the golden voice of Betty Kimble.

After due consideration Ethel Kruger bequeaths her naivete to the sweet lil' frosh, Doris Nelson.

To all gals "Unlucky" in love is left Lois Schwab's ability to receive long-distance calls.

Bequeathed to the next inspired artist by Don Leonard, Casanova of the Senior Dram class, is his dashing ability and "pull" with the teach.

To the underside of the auditorium seats goes Ted "Wrigley" Hall's ability to gum up the works.

June Cochran's art of piloting the "little cousins" through North Central's treacherous halls is left to next semester's "big cousins."

Frank Allen Davis bestows his position of lieutenant on the traffic squad to anyone who can "fill his shoes."

Mary Blake bequeaths the click of the commercial department's typewriters to her memories of happy days spent typing on those keys.

A transfer from West Valley Jeanette Earlson leaves all the other transfers—lonely.

Catherine Larlee imparts her talented dancing in the May Pageant to the next May queen.

To the person with enough courage to eat them, Gladys Bervar leaves the wonderful meals which she cooked in the Home Economics department.

Betty Gruber takes time out to auction off her math book.

That little chair in the corner of the main office is promised some glue to keep office messengers, like Freda Kennedy, from running away.

With "Adios, senores y senoritas" Elizabeth Lake says goodbye to her fellow mates in the La Tertulia club. She's giving her fluent Spanish pronunciation to the next person who gets stuck—with gum.

Bob Chiilberg wills his big bass horn to the next lad who dares to use it. (Esther, hear him blow it?)

Neal Coney has decided to leave a small portion of his ability in "dear" hunting to any frosh who thinks it would come in handy.

After much debating Bill Hartman passes on his study periods to those studs who never realize there are such things.

Don Courtright believes that no one else but Claude Williams could fill his shoes; thus to him goes his cheer leading ability along with other abilities.

Bill Lake regretfully bestows his welfare duties to Doug Koefod who already has a marvelous start.

The rumor that she really is going to Towne'er is left by Betty Monroe and hopes that her sisters will make up for the loss of her.

To the dismay of all teachers Bill Knaack wills his pesty ways and his chewing gum to the whole of the freshman class.

After many instances in which we have felt very ignorant, we are happy to say Maxine Manner has decided to leave her sense of humor (which no one understands) to sister Jean.

Frank Haight willingly bestows his wee small hours in the morning to Patty Sullivan in hopes they'll spend them together.

Larry Algair gladly leaves to join Lois and make plans—(Betelga we can guess what!)

Dolores Haroldson, we are glad to say, bequeaths her ability to get and keep a college man to any girl needing it. (One at a time, pliz.)

Katherine Illas wills her size 12 figure to any gal wishing to make a fourth in a copu.

We are happy to hear that Bonnie McFarland wishes to present her tac to Lois Beller.

Nadine Moran bestows only to her best girl fran's her power over Bob Lorenzi.

Barbara Taylor and Maxine Oakland leave psychology class with a better understanding of why our little Nell went to the city.

The ability of Archie Rutherford on the piano is bestowed to any young man who is interested.

Dick Starr regretfully leaves Phi Zeta with a vacancy which can never be aptly filled.

Reluctantly, Hazel Storey leaves Don Swett with sincere hopes that he'll behave.

To Eddie Kolbet is bequeathed Earl Hook's ability to "take it." (Guess what?)

Evelyn Elder is the proud receiver of Joanne Nelson's reputation for being the ideal representative of Tredecim.

Margaret Charlo leaves a lasting impression of a girl with that beautiful blue-black hair.

Phyllis Cline bequeaths her opinion that Mrs. Cowley is such a nice girl, in spite of her job, to all new-comers to her study hall.

Gale Morgan is the lucky receiver of Dick Walter's Wenatchee experience. On second thought, Dick throws in that flashy bow tie too.

Betty Bittner's "I'm innocent" line, goes to someone who fits it better.

In departing from N. C. halls, Joe Brasch leaves a good racquet to all you underclassmen who plan to go a courtin'.

Delight Case bequeaths her "little girl look" to some Frosh.

To all you struggling Math students, Rose Cannata generously wills her mathematical ability.

Mr. Chandler is left with one less couple of 8:15 hall strollers, with the departure of Louise Carter and Ray Youngman.

Bob Bergdahl reluctantly wills his skills to Tom Hedman but he absolutely refuses to part with his redhead.

Walt Greene bequeaths his darkroom technique to all who are interested in development—photographically speaking of course.

Bill Bailor imparts to posterity one well (?) used bass clarinet.

Stanley Engstrom, that "heck of an engineer" wills his surveying instruments to Mr. Nygaard who will be glad to get them back again.

Aleck Contos leaves several U. S. History teachers with a thrill of accomplishment—at last.

To the future track teams Bill Fallis gives up his "speed."

To Mrs. Leonard goes one headache. Who will portray "innocent youth of America" when Bill Armfield has forever left these halls?

To all you fellows who plan never to go further than plane geometry. Stan Rhodes gladly wills his trigonometry ability.

Carolyn Baxter leaves in her memory one fine job of editing our Tamarack. We appreciate it—Carolyn!

Donnie DeSpain leaves with a sigh but takes one of the Halls with her in remembrance.

Bill Mayther wills his class sleeping ability to the next lad whose "Mayther" wakes him too early in the morn'.

Gordon Gifford leaves his crushes to the next boy who can't resist the girl sitting next to him.

THE SONG, EN-SEE-WATHA

Should you ask us whence these stories? Whence these legends and traditions Of the loyal high school student, En-see-watha, and his people? We should answer, we should tell you.

Twenty moons ago he entered— Young papoose, he was bewildered By the splendor of the Wigwam Where he came to take his learning And become a champion warrior.

He had vowed to win distinction. For this goal strove En-see-watha. Thus, as tenderfoot he labored 'Til at last he was promoted.

When his second year had started En-see-watha planned his future. Planned his days and hours and minutes, So the season passed quite swiftly.

Now our brave's an upperclassman, Turned to fighting—was a warrior. Called the other tribes to battle, Wigwam boys took part in football.

To the whooping of the rooters, And their wild reverberations, "Infuns" plunged into the battle, And came forth with colors flying, Victors on these grand occasions.

One more year had En-see-watha, Two more moons to learn his lessons. Soon his people chose their leaders— Fleet Foot Olson was their chieftain, New Star Zoellern, Peace Pipe Graul, Soft Wind Patchen—all assisted.

Indian Maidens chose their chieftess, Red Swan Oatman was her title. Directing work for all the League, Red Swan fulfilled her duties well.

Suddenly our En-see-watha's Wigwam days were almost over. His friends met to choose their leaders. Chief Wahoo Wylder led the tribe. Again New Star served her people. Once more Soft Wind wrote the legend. Big Bear Walker, Sharp Eye Cramer Helped the welfare of their tribesmen. Soft Voice Guthrie sang the legend— En-see-watha liked these leaders. Then in feathers bright, and warpaint En-see-watha's upperclassmen Gave an entertaining drama. All the wigwam tribe attended.

When time came to leave the Wigwam. Indian warriors and their maidens Danced together at a pow-wow. Danced until the early hours To the rhythm of the tom.tom At the Wigwam's tribal pow-wow.

Now our brave must made departure From the rugged walls of Wigwam, From the binding ties of friendship, Out onto the road of life, To the road that rules his future— To richer hope and stronger foe.

—By Betty Meeker and Jean Mary Risedorph.

ACTIVITIES
Fostering the cleanup of the eight blocks surrounding North Central has been the service project of the executive council this semester. Initiated by the council, the actual work was done by the boys' gym classes under Bob Haworth.

Activities of the community service department under Bob Haworth are carried on by: Civic affairs, Paul Sandstrom; grade school, Jack Guthrie; interscholastic, Merrill Valentine; entertainment, Merlyn Philo; philanthropy, Bill Armfield.

Howard Graul, school service department head, has the following committees: Advertising, Glen Hagle; fire squad, Dick Myers; rooters, Don Courtright; supplies, Bill Stevens; stenography, Del Carlson; tickets, George Miller; transportation, Warren Drollinger; ushering, Frank Haight.

The following committees are under the personal service department headed by Vern Anderson: Dance, Don Leonard; new boys, George Lotzenhiser; recreation, Norman Dahlen; skating, Dale Slayter; fellowship, Rolly Paceello; welfare, Larry Feeney.

Serving under the vocational department led by Rodney Aschenbrenner are the following: Arrangements, Clyde England; convocation, Ted Hall; discussions, Bob Gold.
TRAFFIC AND GROUNDS

CONDUCT BOARD

GIRLS' LEAGUE

GIRLS' LEAGUE advisers for the past semester have been Miss Helen Cleveland and Miss Eleanor Peterson who are substituting for Miss Conah Mae Ellis, League adviser. Miss Ellis has been studying counseling at the University of Chicago.

Miss Jessie Gibson, now dean of women at Pomona college, Claremont, Calif., organized the League for all North Central girls in 1918. The League is divided into eight departments: Red and Black, library, social service, school service, senior counselors, personal efficiency, faculty tea and the home room representatives. Each department has a student director and a faculty adviser.

Girls who work faithfully each semester receive mention on the League honor roll. Bronze, silver, gold, and gold set with ruby pins are awarded to those on the honor roll for the second, fourth, sixth and eighth times.

Active officers for the semester are: President, Lucille Oatman; vice president, Phyllis June Smith; secretary, Delight Case; and treasurer, Ethel Kruger.
CHEER LEADERS

First row: Dorothy Dorich, Marian Munroe, Maxine Doll, Muriel Munroe, Priscilla Harrodson. Second row: Jack McLaughlin, Don Courtright (yell king), Harold Halstead, Claude Williams.

COLOR GROUP

The Tamarack 66
For the purpose of sponsoring athletics and voting awards to outstanding North Central athletes, the Athletic Board, composed of the principal, the vice principal, the athletic directors and the coaches, captains and managers of the various interscholastic sports, was organized in 1917. It is the duty of the board members to approve candidates recommended by the coaches to receive letters or emblems.

Upon the termination of a major sports season, the board meets in the principal’s office to decide upon athletic awards. Coaches’ recommendations are based upon the rule that a candidate must play a certain number of times in games during the season to earn an athletic letter.

It is the privilege of the board to elect honorary members selected from the outstanding athletes of the student body or from among leading men in the city.

The board members design the emblems, regulate the system of award and, when it is necessary, advocate changes in the design of the emblems or the methods of awarding them. Members are entitled to wear honorary pins with the North Central emblem engraved on them.

There are two Athletic board officers, the president and the secretary. Marilyn Pradella is president this semester, and Vernon Anderson is secretary.

Presenting nine one-act plays at intervals during the semester and climaxing the season with a three-act presentation, the senior dramatics class, under the capable direction of Mrs. Grace Douglas Leonard, has completed an exciting season.

First of these vehicles included scenes from three modern propaganda plays, presented before the Women’s Federated clubs. They included “Waiting for Lefty,” “Bury the Dead,” and Mary of Scotland.” “A Wedding” was given at a pay convention during Book week, and at the Elks club. “Tobacco Alley,” a take-off on the famed “Tobacco Road,” was the group’s contribution to the Tamarack convention. Four other plays, “Goodnight, Caroline,” “The Trysting Place,” “Enter the Hero,” and “Only the Birds,” were played at invitational conventions during the semester.

Major production of this group was “320 College Avenue,” a new mystery-comedy by Fred Ballard and Mignon Eberhardt. This amusing three-act murder mystery was played against a college sorority house setting, and was sprinkled with enough clues to inspire much between-the-acts discussion. The combination of laughs and suspense provided a high sustaining interest until the unusual ending was reached. “320 College Avenue” was presented May 22 and 23, with the pep band playing at the matinee performance.

THE PRINCIPAL activity of North Central’s famed one hundred twenty-piece band this semester was its thirty-fourth semi-annual concert presented March 7 to one of the largest audiences in its history. Marches and songs of the national defense forces constituted the theme of the full band, while the concert band played "The Chocolate Soldier," “Richard the Third Overture,” “Malaguena” and the novelty, “Ragtime Wedding.”

Several appearances of the band and Red Feathers were made at the Northwest Music Educators’ conference. They led the Saturday morning parade of twenty-one bands. At the Gonzaga stadium demonstration, they formed and shot a huge bow and arrow, a stunt which was termed by the Spokesman-Review, the "outstanding demonstration of the day." Performing with the other city high schools at the same event, this group formed a treble clef, flanked by the other groups who formed the initials NMEC. Seventeen members of the band appeared with the All-Northwest groups. North Central’s band contingent being the largest from any of the four Northwestern states. George Lotzenhiser, Gordon Munro and Jack Lyman appeared as incidental soloists.

For the twelfth time North Central’s concert band represented Spokane at the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival, appearing in two parades and presenting a concert at the coronation program of the Apple Queen.

Completing the spring band calendar, the band presented in May a program in connection with the eighth annual Music department festival, and provided the music for the May pageant of the Girls' Physical Education department.

Following is the personnel of the band, the names of graduating members being

"GI RLS OF A FEATHER"

"GI RLS of a Feather," the June '41 pageant, had all the usual Injun color and pep characteristic of the N. C. warriors. The only free show of the year, it clearly proved itself worth "heap much wampum."

When a girl enters North Central, she has a lot of fun ahead of her; when she leaves, her memories of high school are of crowded happy days. Therefore the girls P. E. department built their pageant around the life of any high school girl.

The opening procession was led by Donna DeSpain, spring sports princess, with her Indian maiden, Marilyn Pradelia. Following were the attendants, Eva Nielson, Peggy Henkle, June Houston and Ethel Kruger, and the court of 21 girls.

Proceeding down the field to a stately procession march, the attendants escorted Donna to her throne on a stair-like platform with latticed arches. Forming a lovely frame around the princess were the girls of the court.

Then came the bicycle girls in a bicycle drill. Hanging from their handlebars were their lunches, blown-up paper bags.

The Color Girl group includes the younger half of North Central's high school girls. They are the "Johnnyys on the Spot" for any occasion, ushering, doing League work and rooting at the games. But useful is not the only word for them. They are talented performers, and in the pageant they showed their colors in a marching drill with neatly executed formations.

Something original along the line of a three-ring circus were the Rollicking Rompers. From all sides of the playfield came groups of girls representing every spring sport: Volleyball, basketball, tennis and golf. Then there were the Stunt Sisters. Some showed how their sport should be played. Some merely turned comedian and amably furnished the laughs. But all of them made those in the stands wish they could watch everyone at once.

When the playfield was cleared, all eyes turned to the southeast corner of the field, where a circle of Indian maidens danced around their teepee to the tune of "Red Wing." They were the Red Feathers. Instead of the usual warrior dance of the tom-tom originated for between-halves of the football games, the girls did a dance more fitting for a sunny day under blue skies. But though the steps were lighter, the classic lines of red fringe on the white pants and tunic and the vertical feathers of the head bands were still accentuated by the definite Indian motions. Every girl was a part of the group, making a perfect picture of Indian rhythm.

A pageant must be showy, and what is more brilliant than a band—especially North Central's band under the direction of L. C. Bradford. A flash of their red and white uniforms, the sound of their snappy cadence, and any audience is thrilled. Without the shine and style of the band, the pageant could never have been complete.

Then as a special salute to Princess Donna, Jack Lyman stepped forward from the ranks and played on his solo trumpet. "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

Next came the scarf dance, one of beauty and color. The girls used large sheer scarfs of all the rainbow hues, and danced to the tune of the "Sleeping Beauty Waltz." During the dance, Beverly Smith in a lovely costume, presented the princess with the traditional Indian bracelet. The N. C. twins were the bracelet bearers.

At the close, all the performers from all sides of the field came forward in one grand fan-like formation to the princess platform singing, "Marching Along Together." For the finale they faced the school building, while everyone in the stands joined them in the school song, "Red and Black."
Sports
BASKETBALL

TAKING second-place honors in the city high school tournament, the North Central basketball team ended another very successful season under the supervision of Guy O. Barnes. The trophy went to Lewis and Clark again, making it their ninth consecutive championship. Gonzaga took third spot leaving the cellar to Rogers.

After a series of intramural plays, Coach Barnes chose twelve boys to represent the Indians. They were: Captain Wes Dahl, Bruce Walker, Dale Gronsdahl, Doug Cramer, Ray Bowles, Willie Creel, Bob Cardinal, Wayne Conner, Jack Brasch, Jack Ross, Joe Brasch and Jerry Williams.

The team was strengthened by three returning lettermen, Doug Cramer, Wes Dahl and Dale Gronsdahl.

Center Dale Gronsdahl scored 116 points in the city tourney, four short of the city record, to claim high scoring honors for the Braves. Wes Dahl tallied 83 points followed closely by Ray Bowles with 82.

PRE-SEASON GAMES

Losing only to St. John in the first tilt, the N. C. basketballers won nine out of ten pre-season games. St. John came in second for the state hoop title.

The Indians started slow, tallying between 25 and 30 points per game, but improved after the first few tilts to score an average of 38 points per match. The most sensational defeat came when the Braves swamped the Wallace five, 41 to 9, even though the B squad occupied the floor half the game.

Wes Dahl scored a total of 87 points; Ray Bowles tallied 62.

LEWIS AND CLARK TILTS

The Indians lost the city opener with Lewis and Clark 17 to 28. Even though North Central opened the scoring, McAninch of L. C. put his team in the lead by the end of the first quarter. The Elsies never let the hard-fighting Braves in the lead the remainder of the tilt.

North Central sought revenge in the second match and nosed out the South Siders in an exciting game on the Elsies’ floor, 25 to 23.

Lewis and Clark won the next match, 36 to 22, to break up the three-way first-place tie at mid-season. The South Side boys repeated in the final game to win a thriller, 24 to 22.

SERIES WITH GONZAGA

North Central won three out of four from the Gonzagans, losing a tight game, 29 to 31, in the second match. Tall Frank Laney scored his only five points the remaining minutes to be the hero of the game.

The Indians had little difficulty overpowering Gonzaga in the other three games. Headed by Wes Dahl who tallied 14 points, the N. C. basketballers opened up the Bullpups’ defense in the first game to win, 40 to 26.

Dale Gronsdahl scored 18 points, nearly half of the total score, as the Indians swamped the Gonzagans, 37 to 20, in the third tilt. The fourth and final match ended 40 to 15 for the Braves.

ROGERS SERIES

The Indians swept the Rogers series, easily winning all four games. Lack of timber-scrapping material on the Pirate team had a deathly effect upon them.

Dahl potted 16 points, Gronsdahl 14 as the Red quintet downed the Hillyard boys in the first tilt, 46 to 20. The Braves scored a 34 to 26 victory in the second match and 35 to 18 in the third.

The final game saw Dale Gronsdahl vainly try to break the city high school scoring record. Dale scored 20 points as N. C. won the tilt, 42 to 27.

This game marked the end of the high school basketball career for Wes Dahl, Bruce Walker, Dale Gronsdahl, Doug Cramer, Ray Bowles, Willie Creel and Joe Brasch.

FROSH BASKETBALL

COMPETING a successful season of play under J. Wesley Taylor, athletic director, and Dixon Garner, W. S. C. cadet, North Central’s frosh quintet took one game from each of the Lewis and Clark and Rozers squads, and two games from the Gonzaga yearlings.

It was North Central vs. Gonzaga in the season’s opener on the North Central floor with the Indians coming out on the long end of a 15-3 score. Oberholser of N. C. was high point man with six tallies.

North Central bowed to Lewis and Clark in the second scheduled game, 20-34, and again to Rogers in their final encounter by a 15-30 score. Other results were: North Central 14, Rogers 12; North Central 25, Lewis and Clark 17; North Central 19, Gonzaga 18.

Oberholser led North Central individual scorers with a total of 27 points, followed by Seafe with 19 counters. Total points scored by the Indians were 108; opponents 114.

It’s a funny thing, but the horsey type of girl never seems to get a groom.

Bolstered by nine returning lettermen, the North Central track squad won its fourth consecutive championship under the coaching of Guy O. Barnes. Lettermen are: Bob Haworth, Bruce Walker, George Langill, Claude Bare, Tom Herman, Bill Mayther, Bill Fallis, Ray Bowles and Wally Mahoney.

Covering the various events this season are: 100-yard dash—Wally Mahoney, Will Greear and Tom Herman; 220-yard dash—Will Greear, Wally Mahoney and Tom Herman; 440-yard dash—Bill Fallis, Joe King and Don Parkhurst; 880-yard run—Bob Haworth, Cyril Bare, Howard Graul and Art Franke; mile run—Bob Hann, George Langill, Claude Bare and Bob Smith; high jump—Bruce Walker, Bill Mayther and James Gordon; broad jump—Wally Mahoney, Bruce Walker, Harl Aldrich and James Gordon; pole vault—Ray Bowles, Bob Bafaro and Bob Kapeatis; high hurdles—Ray Bowles, Norm Cross and Harl Aldrich; low hurdles—Ray Bowles, Jerry Williams and Doug Wirsche; shot put—Jim Lalone, Bill Mayther, Garland DeRoshia, Tom Biallas; relay—Wally Mahoney, Will Greear, Bill Fallis and Joe King.

On a squad composed almost entirely of returning seniors with three years of competition behind them, Coach Archie Buckley is pinning hopes of turning out a championship crew. Having all the potentialities of a winning club has made Coach Buckley feel confident of an upper division winner.

Handling the newly created "B" squad this year is Roy Anderson, Washington State college student teacher. Under his tutorship the squad played three games and scheduled three return matches. The contest with Lewis and Clark’s "B" squad ended in a 5 to 3 score favoring North Central. West Valley failed to score as the Indians trimmed them to the tune of 8 to 0. In their first encounter with Central Valley, the Indians lost by a score of 6 to 4.

Pre-Season Tilts

Six pre-season games with teams in the immediate vicinity of Spokane were played in order to polish off the rough edges prior to city league competition. West Valley’s men were first victims of the Indian machine as North Central unleashed its heavy artillery to score a 15 to 1 victory. The return engagement proved to be a tight 3 to 2 contest. Two more wins came in the series with the Spokane Junior college which ended in 2 to 0 and 4 to 3 scores. Gonzaga high

AFTER winning all their pre-season matches and defeating Rogers and Gonzaga in the city league, Coach E. L. Hix's tennis team seemed to be on the way toward their seventh consecutive championship. Three lettermen, Joe Brasch, Leroy Phillips and Bill McCannon, returned to strengthen the Indian net squad. Deral Kruz acted as manager through the spring season.

After several round-robin tournaments, Coach Hix chose eight racket-swingers to represent North Central through the 1941 season. They are: Joe Brasch, Jack Brasch, Bill McCannon, LeRoy Phillips, Jim Pitcher, Ben McInturff, Wally Erickson and Elmer Schorzman.

Apparently taking up where they left off last year the Indian tennis team trounced the Spokane Junior college 10—0, W. S. C. frosh 7—3, Bonners Ferry 7—0 and Coeur d'Alene 7—1.

In the city high school race the Red netsters walloped Rogers 6—1. Results of the matches which were played on the North Central courts are:

- McCannon beat Weller 6—0, 6—4;
- Erickson defeated Valsvig 6—3, 6—2;
- Pitcher won over Franklin 6—2, 6—1;
- Phillips beat Waldrop 6—4, 6—0; Joe Brasch won over Lemmon 6—1, 6—1. In doubles competition Erickson and Schorzman defeated Waldrop and Weller 6—2, 6—2; and Jack Brasch and McInturff lost to Lemmon-Valsvig 3—6, 6—1, 6—4.

WITH but three lettermen returning from last year's squad, of which only two were able to play regularly, golf prospects were not the brightest as North Central began the 1941 golf season.

More than a score of boys answered to Coach Walter C. Hawes' first call for tryouts early in the season. From this group, eight were chosen to represent North Central in matches with the three other high schools. Ranking of the players was determined by Coach Hawes after each boy shot several rounds and turned in his score cards.

The high schools, as in past years, were organized into a round robin tournament, each team playing the others twice during the season. All of North Central's first round matches were played on the Indian Canyon course; the second round, at Downriver.

This year's squad is composed of the following: Bruce Walker, Bud McIntire, Cecil Hunter, Bill Hartman, Glenn Ballantyne, Dick Walter, Dale Gromsdahl, and Bill Lake. Of this group, only Glenn Ballantyne will return next year.
BOYS’ SPORTS

SOFTBALL

Under the direction of Frank Bratonia, student teacher from Washington State college, the intramural spring sports program was organized. From the fifty boys turning out for intramural sports, thirty-four organized into two teams, the Draft Dodgers under the leadership of Norman Dahlen, and the Track Squad led by Bob Haworth.

Sterling Davis, Draft Dodger first sacker, led the batters in distance hitting. George Langill’s six-hit pitching triumph went on record as being outstanding in that department.

An all-star team was picked by Mr. Bratonia, in conference with the two captains. Games were scheduled with independent teams throughout the city.

HORSESHOE—HANDBALL

Under the management of Bob Rice and Student Teacher Frank Bratonia, an extensive double-elimination horseshoe and handball tournament was started this spring. Due to bad weather and difficulty in arranging matches, however, it advanced rather slowly.

Both North Central’s concrete handball courts were available to the players as well as a horseshoe pit which had recently been constructed in the playfield. Two out of three games were played, each lasting to 21 points. When this story was written, odds were given to Irl Cosby who had reached the semi-finals, without a loss, in both horseshoes and handball.

Boys playing in the horseshoe tournament were: Art Cosby, Irl Cosby, Jack Segesman, Fred Price, Harl Aldrich, Olin Hart, Lawrence Peterson and Fred Peterson.

PING-PONG

Three regulation ping-pong tables and standard equipment, available every night during the winter season on the third floor, were used by thirty boys who organized two tournaments.

In the double elimination bouts, Everett Clarke placed first, defeating Jim Allen in the finals. Harl Aldrich finished third.

The round robin tournament divided the players into two divisions. Leading the “A” division was Everett Clarke, with Harl Aldrich runner-up. Bill Bell won the “B” division crown followed by Jim Pitcher.

COACHES

A coach’s success is often measured by the number of championship teams he produces. Just such successful coaches are: Guy O. Barnes, track coach, and Ernest L. Hix, tennis coach, who have consistently turned out winning North Central teams.

The enviable record of five city championships out of the six years he has coached track belongs to Mr. Barnes, Spokane’s outstanding high school track coach.

Mr. Hix has just completed his eighth year as coach of the tennis squad at North Central. He ran his string of consecutive city title holders to seven this year.

GIRLS' P. E.

If you want to be an athlete, Come join our merry fun; We'll teach you baseball, tennis and golf And even how to run.

From the boundary lines of the baseball team We hear "Slide and hit the dirt!" Though the girls fall down and bash the ground, They never seem to get hurt.

Now if you boys like a real form In the high jump and fifty-yard dash, You should watch the girls in the track meet— They'll run by you like a flash.

If you want to learn about tennis, Our girls can show you how; And there's volleyball, golf and badminton— They'll teach these, too, and right now.

We're not through yet; there's the N. C. swim, Add skating and ping-pong, too; Miss Pinkham heads these various sports And helps us all the way through.

PROMINENT SENIOR GIRLS

Each semester, senior A girls are chosen by the physical education department as having been particularly outstanding in this field.

Girls who went out for intramural sports are: Rose Cannata, Marjorie Zinnecker, Helen Duckett, Marilynn Pradelia, Pat Buckler and Priscilla Ross.

Helen, Pat and Priscilla were members, and Marilynn, captain of the tennis team. Both Priscilla and Pat were head of the P. E. department at different times. All were Red Feathers.

Other outstanding players were Donna DeSpain, Lucille Oatman, spring captain, and Peggy Henkel.

Donna was golf captain. Peggy, manager, and Lucille, a member of the squad. Other golf enthusiasts were Margaret Bennion, present captain; Carolyn Baxter and Katherine Barry, manager. All of these girls except Katherine were Red Feathers.

Beverly Smith and Jeanne Hibbitt literally danced their way through North Central. Both were Red Feathers. Joy Finrow and Loretta Fruin made efficient tennis team managers.

SKATING

"Don't forget to get your skating ticket!"

This is a common bit of conversation on any Wednesday morning during that period in the winter when the Ice Arena is open. For it is on this day of the week that enthusiastic lad and lassie skaters slip their skis-pants and skates over their arms before bidding "Mom" good-bye for the day.

As a climax of the season the Scholastic ice races are held. This contest is sponsored by the Scholastic magazine. Setting a new record, Ruth Edge, 10A, was medal winner this year among the girls; and Dale Slayter was victorious among the boys.

SWIMMING

Swimming is not neglected on the sports program offered to the girls of North Central. Swimming is done for gym credit under expert instruction at the Y. W. C. A.

The masculine personages of the school don't miss out on the program. From the time the Natatorium plunged open till school is out in June, both boys and girls enjoy this recreation.

GIRLS' TENNIS

"WHERE is everyone dashing to?" questions an innocent bystander on a Monday afternoon about 3:02.

The herd of girls clad in white shorts running for the exit door on every Monday and Wednesday afternoon is rather overwhelming. It is this enthusiastic group that makes up the North Central girls' tennis team.

The team had excellent opportunities to display its prowess during this spring season. They have played matches, both singles and doubles with Lewis and Clark, Rogers, West Valley and Coeur d'Alene high schools and Havermale junior high school.

Splendid cooperation has been received by Miss Elsa Pinkham, coach; Lucille Oatman, captain; Joy Finrow and Loretta Fruin, managers; Peggy Leach and Joy Louise Ferguson, assistant managers.

Leaving the team this season through graduation are fourteen senior A's. They are: Pat Buckler, Myrtus Cross, Eleanor Charbulak, Helen Duckett, Donna DeSpain, Frances Hickey, Peggy Henkle, Jeanne Linden, Lucille Oatman, Marilynn Pradella, Priscilla Ross, Margaret Robideaux, Ruth Sommerville and Helen Tracy. The managers, Joy Finrow and Loretta Fruin are also being graduated.
GIRLS' GOLF

WITH the first showing of a blade of green grass through the moistened earth—with the first songs of our native robin, comes the reshining, rewinding and caressing of every golf club in the possession of the girls on North Central's golf team.

During the spring season, these girls, under the expert coaching of Miss Wilhelmine Timm, gain valuable experience through the playing of competitive matches with Lewis and Clark and the running off of elimination tournaments among themselves. This contest is sponsored by the Scholastic magazine which awards a medal to the winner.

A lively, friendly spirit is kept alive by added competition in blind-hole tournaments and putting tournaments in which the winners are given much-needed balls as prizes.

Margaret Bennion has been the captain and Katherine Barry the manager for this semester's team. In the procession of graduating seniors will march these two competent girls and also Donne DeSpain, Lucille Oatman, Priscilla Ross, Peggy Henkle, Mary Patchen, Joy Finrow and Carolyn Baxter.

"SHE swings like a rusty gate; 1-2-3, you're out!" Remarks such as these were often heard during the merry month of May among the record-breaking crowd of 130 girls who participated in the softball games on the playfield.

Eight teams played a round robin tournament of seven games at which the girls did their own umpiring.

The teams and the captains were: Battin' Bulldogs, Evelyn Bradley; Silly Sluggers, Helen Duckett; Slap-Happy Sluggers, Peggy Gazette; Super Sluggers, Betty Wisted; Smitty Sluggers, Gail Smith; Battie Petunias, Marilynn Pradella; Wally's Wizards, Joy Wallingford; Brown's Bullets, Shirley Brown.

Winding up the season, the girls on two all-star teams played an exhibition tilt for the dads on Dads' night. The fathers umpired this game. Sack lunches proved a great success.

Softball managers this spring were Gail Smith and Shirley Brown. Miss Isabel McElwee was the coach.

were plenty of them, too!) enthusiastically showed up for.

It was a happy day when the girls popped into the big gym for their afternoon workout and found “beautiful red lines” outlining three badminton courts.

Another highlight of the season came when several North Central players journeyed to Coeur d’Alene to play some highly competitive matches with these “ladies by the lake.” Our team was defeated, but by worthy opponents.

Peggy Gazelle won the singles title and coupled with Luelle Oatman to win the doubles title also.

VOLLEYBALL

When you find “Vampires,” “Battling Beauties,” “Tin Tooters,” “Mexican Jumping Beans” and “Spark Plugs” mixed together, what do you have? This “conglomeration,” when divided into six teams which are functioning as only good volleyball teams can, provides a mighty exciting tournament.

This was the result of the grouping of the girls who entered competitive play in volleyball early this spring. The “Tin Tooters,” captained by Rose Cannata, ended by shouting the victory cry.

Miss Isabel McElwee, P. E. teacher, assisted the girls in running off all the tournaments in the various minor girls’ sports.

RED FEATHERS

“Keep your hands out of your pockets,” is a familiar cry heard on the playfield as Miss Elsa Pinkham directs the 61 members of the Red Feather girls’ marching unit, organized in the spring of 1938.

Patricia Buckler, senior A, was chairman this spring, while Eva Nicholson was secretary.

The Red Feathers ushered at the annual band concert. They participated in the parade and program for the Northwest Music conference.

During the program, the girls formed an arrow which was shot by the bow, formed by the band boys. Following this stunt, the Red Feathers poured into a giant treble clef made by the band. Rogers' and Lewis and Clark bands and marching units formed on either side of the clef, letters standing for the conference.

All the senior A Red Feathers who desired to, ran for spring sports princess. Donna DeSpain, elected sports princess by ticket holders to the spring sports program, was crowned at the spring pageant.

Wally Mahoney: No, make it six roses. I don't want to say too much.
BASEBALL

fared not so well in its first encounter with North Central, losing 6 to 2. To the Bullpups, however, fell the honor of tripping the high-flying Indians. The Gonzagans spilled the Warriors, 7 to 3, in the pre-season finale as the Indians prepared for the league opener.

N. C.-L. C.

Opening the 1941 season at Hart Field, Coach Buckley’s men banged out a 13-hit, 10 to 1 victory over the Lewis and Clark Tigers. Gale Morgan, starting on the mound for North Central, went the entire route to give up only 4 hits. Two of the South Siders’ three blows came in the fourth inning when the Tigers tallied their lone run. In the big seventh inning, the Indians batted their way around to score six runs.

N. C.-Gonzaga

Gonzaga took to the offerings of Jack Sloan, Indian starting hurler, nicking him for eight hits and four runs before he was relieved by Jim Perno in the fifth inning. Presley, batting clean-up for Gonzaga, led the hitters with three singles and a double in four times at bat. Wylder led the Indian attack with two hits in two official times at bat. The final score of 6 to 0 favored the Boone Avenue gang.

N. C.-Rogers

Rogers fell to North Central in the final game of the first round, 1 to 0. The game was a thriller from start to finish as Gale Morgan, Indian moundsmen, pitched his second win in as many starts. Gale allowed just two hits; his teammates collecting but four. Williams scored the winning tally in the fifth inning on a fielder’s choice after doubling to center field, but it was anybody’s contest to the very finish.

upset the dope bucket to start on their way for the city title. The South Siders took firsts in the shot put, low hurdles and broad jump. The most outstanding events were the mile run and the 880-yard run. Bob Hann ran the mile in 4:40 to garner a first, while Bob Haworth sped through the 880 in 2:05. Ray Bowles was high in the meet with 13 points. He gathered a first in the pole vault and high hurdles and a second in the low hurdles.

Defeating Rogers on the Hillyard cinder patch, 62 1/2 to 41 1/2, the Braves chalked up their second victory which brought the championship within arm's reach of North Central. The Pirates swept the broad jump while the Indians garnered three places in the mile run. Ray Bowles barely missed a new pole vault record when he failed to clear the bar at 12 feet. Ray Bowles and Rogers' Harold Aikins tied for individual scoring honors with 11 points apiece.

TENNIS

The hapless Gonzaga team met the same end as did the Rogers squad, the Indians this time taking every match.

Results:

Joe Brasch won over Gentry 6—2, 6—1; McCannon defeated Egan 6—0, 6—1; Phillips won over O’Brien 6—2, 6—2; McInturff beat Oriard 6—0, 6—1; and Jack Brasch defeated Springer 6—0, 6—1. In doubles Phillips-Pitcher won over Collins-Shinn 6—1, 6—1, and Erickson-Schorzman beat Gentry-Gottscholk 6—0, 6—0.

When this story was written, only Lewis and Clark remained a barrier in North Central’s quest for the championship.

Mary had a little waist
Where waists were meant to grow;
And everywhere the fashions went
The waist was sure to go.

Good Luck, Graduates of June ’41

If it were possible for each of us to call upon each of you, we would do so and express personally our congratulations upon your graduation, and wishes for the fulfillment of your hopes and ambitions. Since that is not possible, we send our wishes to you on this printed page . . . hoping that the friendships we have formed with you may grow as the years pass by.

A Word to You Senior B’s

You’re next in line to graduate. You’ll want to preserve the memories of the great day with a truly artistic photograph of yourself. So when you’re ready, next fall, visit any of the studios named below, where you can talk personally with the photographer who will do the work, and examine the many styles, sizes and finishes available. You’ll receive fullest value and a guarantee of satisfaction. Prices from $4.50 to $12 per dozen.

We suggest, for your own interests, you do not obligate yourself by tying up with coupon salesmen who may solicit you during the summer.

Two spinsters were discussing men.
"What would you desire most in a man—brain, wealth or appearance?" asked one.
"Appearance," snapped the other, "and the sooner the better!"

WHEN we build, let us think that we build forever. Let it not be for present delight nor for present use alone. Let it be such work as our descendants will thank us for; and let us think, as we lay stone on stone, that a time is to come when those stones will be held sacred because our hands have touched them, and that men will say as they look upon the labor and wrought substance of them: “See! This our Fathers did for us.”

Mrs. Leonard: Mr. Manager, I can’t eat this soup.
Manager: I’ll call the chef.
Mrs. Leonard: Mr. Chef, I can’t eat this soup.
Chef: What’s wrong with it?
Mrs. Leonard: Nothing. I haven’t a spoon.

Mr. Nygaard: I take great pleasure in giving you 81 in mathematics.
Bob Olson: Make it 100 and thoroughly enjoy yourself.

Pat Carpenter: Mother, I am the best singer in the chorus. Today we sang a song and I was the first one finished.

When a guy goes steady he sees his mistake. He sees her every evening.
The poets always seek for wealth
In terms of stirring sights,
Of gorgeous sunsets, blooming
Flowers, mystic northern lights,
Of babbling brooks and women's
Eyes that burn with dreams of love,
Of gleaming sunbeams shining
Through the grimmest clouds above.
For they, it seems, discover gold
In nature's ev'ry flash,
While I admit my lowly state,
Since what I want is cash.

The difference between an old-fashioned girl and the modern girl is that the old-fashioned girl blushes when she is ashamed, and the modern girl is ashamed when she blushes.

Mr. Jaynes: Have you ever read "To

"Well, from what I hear—even in the far corners of the north forty—that's the place to go. North Central runs its opponents ragged. For five straight years in track. That's some record.

"They also tell me Benewah has been winning a few prizes, too... and praises from thrifty North Central parents as the place to buy quality dairy products—the stuff that builds champions. Little wonder, for Benewah perfected producer-to-consumer merchandising through 17 painstaking years. My milk and cream are bought direct from my boss. They're processed in Benewah's own creamery—the finest in the northwest. And sold through Benewah's own stores. That's cutting corners and costs—without sacrificing quality."
